

House Resolution No. 139

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State youths who admirably pursue the knowledge, skills, and experiences necessary to become lifelong learners, involved citizens, and future societal leaders; and

Whereas, Nancy Asay of Aurora, Missouri, has attained considerable distinction as an interior designer who owns Nancy Asay Interiors; and

Whereas, Nancy Asay recently enhanced her already impressive record of accomplishment when she was selected to receive the Loyd R. Ellis Award from the Aurora Chamber of Commerce; and

Whereas, the Loyd R. Ellis Award is given to an individual who has given of their time and energy to support the Chamber and community for a minimum of three to five years; and

Whereas, the wife of Dr. Ray Asay, Nancy Asay is justifiably proud also to be known as the loving mother of Julie Ross, Jill Goetsch, Beth Asay, and Parker Asay and as the wonderful grandmother of Walker Ross, Grace Goetsch, Paige Goetsch, Cooper Goetsch and Wyatt Ross; and

Whereas, Nancy Asay has developed and maintained an excellent reputation for her involvement in the Aurora Chamber of Commerce Board, Aurora PTA, Aurora Community Foundation, Aurora Band Boosters, Aurora Athletic Booster, Project Graduation, PEO, Aurora United Methodist Church, American Society of Interior Designers, National Council of Interior Design Qualification, Springfield Design Association, FIDER Accreditation endeavors, vice president of the Board of Directors for the Missouri Coalition for Interior Design, the redecoration renovation of Aurora City Hall, and fund-raising for Little League baseball fields; and

Whereas, no stranger to honors and accolades, Nancy Asay holds Bachelor of Fine Arts and Master in Education degrees and is a Missouri Registered Interior Designer; and

Whereas, it is fitting and proper that the Missouri House of Representatives should pause in its diverse legislative activities in order to acknowledge milestone events in the lives of such outstanding Missouri residents as Nancy Asay:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the accomplishments garnered thus far in the life of Nancy Asay and to convey to her this legislative body's most heartfelt congratulations upon receiving the Loyd R. Ellis Award presented by the Aurora Chamber of Commerce; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for presentation to Nancy Asay of Aurora, Missouri.
